Additionally, it encompasses conducting research activities at research institutions, both public and private, with contracts, scholarships, or collaboration assignments, both in Italy and abroad, as declared in accordance with the procedures outlined in Article 4.

Those who have submitted their application for participation in the selection within the deadlines and according to the procedures outlined in Article 4, and have not received a communication of exclusion from the selection via PEC, will undergo the interview on the 29th of April, 2024, at 10:30 a.m. at the CNR Institute for Research on Population and Social Policies, Via Palestro, 32, 00185, Rome.

The winner(s) will be indicated. In case of a tie, preference will be given to the younger candidate.

The merit ranking will be approved by the Director of the Institute and will be published, by the Director himself, by posting it on the notice board of the examination venue, on the CNR website: www.urp.cnr.it, and through other forms of advertising provided for in this selection notice.

The measure referred to in the preceding paragraph will be adopted on the proposal of the Research Manager. If, for personal reasons, the grantee cannot complete the planned activity and, therefore, prematurely renounces the grant, they must promptly notify the Director of the Institute and the Research Manager. In this case, the grant holder must refund any amounts received and not due.

In the event that the funding is discontinued, the Director of the Institute reserves the right not to confer or revoke the grant for supervening justified reasons of the Scientific Manager or the Funding Body.
